All Liberal MPs have agreed and will be required to vote pro-choice on any abortion-related bills/motions. Also, Trudeau will not likely allow anti-choice MPs to introduce their own bills/motions, or publicly advocate against abortion rights. Therefore, these MPs should not pose any threat, although they should be monitored. Likewise, Liberal MPs not on this 2014 pro-choice list may warrant monitoring to ensure they adhere to the party's pro-choice policy.

Bill C-225 update: All 7 Liberals with previous anti-choice records voted No, except for John McKay who did not vote.

*Anti-choice MPs are designated as anti-choice based on at least one of these reasons:

- Voted in favour of Bill C-225, and/or Bill C-484, and/or Bill C-510, and/or Motion 312
- Opposed the Order of Canada for Dr. Henry Morgentaler in 2008
- Made public anti-choice or “pro-life” statements
- Participated publicly in anti-choice events or campaigns
- Rated as “pro-life” by Campaign Life Coalition

Pro-choice MPs: Estimate includes Conservative MPs with a public pro-choice position and/or pro-choice voting record. It also includes all Liberal MPs (except the 7 anti-choice ones) and all MPs from all other parties based on the assumption they are pro-choice or will vote pro-choice.
